Melcher Warriors began practice on August 23, 1953, under the direction of Head Coach, Keith D. Hopkins, and Assistant Coach, Glen Johnson. Twenty-six boys reported for practice to prepare themselves for an eight-game schedule. Melcher enjoyed one of the best football seasons it has had for a number of years. The first game of the season, with Carlisle, was handled rather easily -- 39-0. Humeson measured Melcher for its only loss -- 25-7. On October 30, Melcher played Garden Grove for the Conference Championship. The game ended in a tie, Melcher placing second.

John McCullough, John Milosevic, Tom Pezzetti, Jack Fortune, and Louie Karpan made the "All-Conference Team." "Honorable Mention" went to Leonard Dhabalt, Jack Rankin, and Darwin Tobin.

Melcher scored 173 points -- opposition, 64. Melcher's goal was uncrossed at home.
